

The Field - November 2011 Edition

Welcome

Welcome to the new format of The Field, the Saskatchewan District newsletter. It is our goal to put out this small insert monthly to keep you informed of the news and goings on of the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada, Saskatchewan District.

Fall Retreat

Around 90 of our leaders and their spouses met at ElkrIDGE Resort for a time of renewal. The District Superintendent, John Drisner, used the life of Moses to challenge us to not let our disappointments and difficulties discourage us but to "get up and climb the mountain together." Guest speaker Jonathan Smith fed us well from God's word too.

Pastoral Changes

After 25 years in Kelvington, Martyn & Ann Crabtree "retired" to Sonningdale as that church's new pastor. The previous pastor, Rob & Jayne Seargeant are in transition in Saskatoon.

Frank and Lisa Owusu-Banahene are the new pastors in Kelvington.

Joshua & Tiffany Wyatt are new Jr. youth pastors in Lloydminster.

Fred and Bev Carter have been called to Moose Jaw. Clint and Dena Demarce have assumed the role of directors of Riverside Mission, an outreach in Moose Jaw.

New Children's pastors include: Eli Cork at Maple Creek and Shelley & Brian Gold at Avonhurst, Regina.

Arnold and Norma Hemmerling have retired as pastors of Wilkie.

Thomas Harris is the new chaplain at the Prince Albert Penitentiary.

John and Windelle Seargeant have resigned from the pastoral leadership of Redvers.
